Counselors, I write to inquire as to when you will provide written responses to our first sets of interrogatories and requests for production, issued more than two months ago. Note we are not agreeing to an extension beyond what we previously consented to. I merely ask as part of a meet and confer preparatory to seeking the Court's assistance in compelling your responses.

Unless you give us an agreeable date certain by the end of today, we will seek relief from the Court.

Thanks

Greg
